Section 1.05 Response

Section 1.06 Measuring Performance (Maximum points: 5)

Select one of the following HUD Objectives and one corresponding Outcome that most appropriately reflects the impact of the proposed activity.

Objectives

- _____ Suitable Living Environment – In general, this objective relates to activities that are designed to benefit communities, families, or individuals by addressing issues in their living environment.
- _____ Decent Affordable Housing – The activities that typically would be found under this objective are designed to cover the wide range of housing possible under HOME, CDBG or ESG. This objectives focuses on housing programs where the purpose of the program is to meet individual family or community needs and not programs where housing is an element of a larger effort (such as would be captured under Suitable Living Environment).
- _____ Creating Economic Opportunity – This objective applies to the types of activities related to economic development, commercial revitalization, or job creation.

Outcomes

- _____ Availability/Accessibility – This outcome category applies to activities that make services, infrastructure, housing, or shelter available or accessible to low- and moderate- income people, including persons with disabilities. In this category, accessibility does not refer only to physical barriers, but also to making the affordable basics of daily living available and accessible to low- and moderate- income people.
- _____ Affordability – This outcome category applies to activities that provide affordability in a variety of ways in the lives of low- and moderate- income people. It can include the creation or maintenance of affordable housing, basic infrastructure hook-ups, or services such as transportation or day care.
- _____ Sustainability – Promoting Livable or Viable Communities. This outcome applies to projects where the activity or activities are aimed at improving communities or neighborhoods, helping to make them livable or viable by providing benefit to persons of low- and moderate- income people or by removing or eliminating slums or blighted areas, through multiple activities or services that sustain communities or neighborhoods.

Section 1.07 Finances, Budget and Sustainability of Use (Maximum points: 25)

Please restrict your responses to answering items listed here.

- a. Discuss the source of funds that will sustain the operations of the service (i.e., personnel, utilities, maintenance, insurance, and others).
- b. Complete the attached Budget Summary. More detailed budgets may be attached.
- c. Guam funds are more effectively used primarily as gap funding. Identify sources of leveraged funding for this activity. Include the status of these funds (i.e. cash on hand, grants received, planned fund-raising). Attach copies of funding commitment letters or other evidence of funding support.

- d. Do you have a plan to become self-supporting within the next five years? If so, where will the resources come from to continue the activity? Please describe your plan for self-support.

- b. Have you engaged citizens, community groups and project beneficiaries (consumers) in identifying the needs and problems that your service means to address? How?
- c. Have you engaged citizens, community groups and project beneficiaries (consumers) in developing the service? How?
- d. Please attach letters of support received from your community program partners.

Section 1.08 Response

Section 1.09 Certification of Ability to Manage Federal Funds

I certify that the organization responsible for carrying out the project activities under this proposal has a financial management system that satisfies the following requirements for managing federal funds:

1. The financial management system in place is able to:
 - a. Properly account for federal funds spent,
 - b. Ensure requests are for the correct amount of federal funds,
 - c. Ensure funds are used for project-related purposes,
 - d. Ensure funds are deposited in the proper account, and
 - e. Maintain necessary documentation for all costs incurred.

2. Internal Controls in place include:
 - a. A written set of policies and procedures that define staff qualifications and duties, lines of authority, separation of functions, and access to assets and sensitive documents;
 - b. A written accounting procedures for approving and recording transactions; and
 - c. A period comparison of financial records to actual assets and liabilities to check for completeness and accuracy.

3. An adequate financial accounting system is maintained including:
 - a. A chart of accounts,
 - b. A general ledger,
 - c. Cash receipts journal,
 - d. Cash disbursements journal, and
 - e. A payroll journal.

4. The standards and procedures for determining the reasonableness, allowability and allocability are clearly defined and are consistent with the basic Federal rules (OMB Circular A-87 or A-122).

5. Files of original source documentation (receipts, invoices, canceled checks, etc.) for all financial transactions, including those involving obligations incurred and the use of program income are maintained and up-to-date.

6. The approved budget is up-to-date for all funded activities. Comparisons of the budget with actual expenditures for each budget category are performed.

7. Regular procedures are in place for accurately projecting the cash needs of the organization, and for minimizing the time between the receipt of funds and their actual disbursement. All program income is used for permitted activities, and such program income is used before further requests for payments are made for the same activity.

8. The applicant is able to provide accurate, current and complete disclosure of the financial results of each Federally-sponsored project or program in accordance with the reporting requirements of HUD.

9. Annual audits of the applicant are conducted in accordance with the Federal requirements (OMB Circular A-133).

Section 1.10 Certification of Fair Housing laws and Presidential Executive Orders

The Fair Housing Laws

Fair Housing Act: Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 (Fair Housing Act), as amended, prohibits discrimination in the sale, rental, and financing of dwellings, and in other housing-related transactions, based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status (including children under the age of 18 living with parents of legal custodians, pregnant women, and people securing custody of children under the age of 18), and handicap (disability).

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964: Title VI prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, or national origin in programs and activities receiving federal financial assistance.

Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973: Section 504 prohibits discrimination based on disability in any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.

Section 109 of Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974: Section 109 prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex or religion in programs and activities receiving financial assistance from HUD's Community Development and Block Grant Program.

Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990: Title II prohibits discrimination based on disability in programs, services, and activities provided or made available by public entities. HUD enforces Title II when it relates to state and local public housing, housing assistance and housing referrals.

Architectural Barriers Act of 1968: The Architectural Barriers Act requires that buildings and facilities designed, constructed, altered, or leased with certain federal funds after September 1969 must be accessible to and useable by handicapped persons.

Age Discrimination Act of 1975: The Age Discrimination Act prohibits discrimination on the basis of age in programs or activities receiving federal financial assistance.

Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972: Title IX prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in education programs or activities that receive federal financial assistance.

Fair Housing-Related Presidential Executive Orders:

Executive Order 11063: Executive Order 11063 prohibits discrimination in the sale, leasing, rental, or other disposition of properties and facilities owned or operated by the federal government or provided with federal funds.

Executive Order 11246: Executive Order 11246, as amended, bars discrimination in federal employment because of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

Executive Order 12892: Executive Order 12892, as amended, requires federal agencies to affirmatively further fair housing in their programs and activities, and provides that the Secretary of HUD will be responsible for coordinating the effort. The Order also establishes the President's Fair Housing Council, which will be chaired by the Secretary of HUD.

Executive Order 12898: Executive Order 12898 requires that each federal agency conduct its program, policies, and activities that substantially affect human health or the environment in a manner that does not exclude persons based on race, color, or national origin.

Executive Order 13166: Executive Order 13166 eliminates, to the extent possible, limited English proficiency as a barrier to full and meaningful participation by beneficiaries in all federally-assisted and federally conducted programs and activities.

Executive Order 13217: Executive Order 13217 requires federal agencies to evaluate their policies and programs to determine if any can be revised or modified to improve the availability of community-based living arrangements for persons with disabilities.

Section 1.11 General Certification

I certify that:

1. To the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in this application is true and correct.
2. I have reviewed and accept the instructions for submission of this application for review and evaluation.
3. The organization responsible for carrying out the project activities under this proposal will comply with all applicable local and Federal laws and regulations.
4. The organization will take actions to affirmatively further fair housing and implement ESG activities in compliance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968.
5. The organization will verify that no person who is an employee, agent, consultant, officer, or recipients which are receiving ESG funding may obtain a financial interest or benefit, have an interest in or benefit from the activity, or have an interest in any contract, subcontract or agreement with respect to ESG activities, with the exception of administrative or personnel costs.
6. The organization will provide in a timely manner for citizen participation, public hearings, and access to information with respect to the proposed project/program.
